PSHE

Draw a card showing a type of difference which could cause conflict, from a hat.

- Race
- Religion
- Disability
- Gender
- Age
- The use of technology

Create a story line that will be performed in a sequence of three freeze frames.

The three focus points of this will be:

1. Set up a scenario in which the difference is the source of conflict e.g someone who is not disabled parks in a disabled space at the shopping centre blocking its use.
2. Create an event/incident in the storyline which challenges the conflict and needs to bring the two sides/people together, e.g. there is a power cut in the shopping centre and it has to be evacuated, the person who has parked wrongly helps the disabled person exit the centre.
3. Devise an ending to the story to show that their initial differences have been overcome and that this is a cause for celebration, e.g the person who has parked realises they have been selfish so they decide to raise money for a disabled charity by doing a half-marathon.
