Monday - punctuation

Add the correct punctuation to these sentences

- 1. Terrified Alex hid behind the silver BMW
- Suddenly he heard voice coming from inside the shed
- 3. Alex who was shocked to find his uncle's car crouched down so that he could not be seen
- Within seconds of him hiding two men appeared
- Why was his uncle's car here
- Without hesitation he dived into the car

Tuesday - similes

Similes are used to compare using as or like. An example from our Stormbreaker story is: Three huge metal fingers tore through the skin of the car like a fork through eggshell.

Complete these similes.

The metal claw punctured the roof like ...

His heart pounded like ...

Alex slid down in his seat like ...

His legs froze like ...

His stomach lurched like ...

The sound of metal grinding was as --- as ----

Wednesday - Sound! Clause sentences

An example of a Sound! Clause sentence is: Crash! The teeth of the crusher bit into the car.

Now find the Sound! Clause sentence in the paragraph below.

Crash! The car was dropped into the sinister, snickering crusher. Alex kicked the door repeatedly trying to escape, hoping the door would swing open...

But it didn't. Alex was running out of time as the crusher was hungrily closing its teeth to devour the car. Suddenly, Alex accidentally triggered the LED screen; it took him one second to figure out what to do.

Think of other words that you could use as the sound in a Sound! Clause sentence. Write two Sound! Clause sentences.

Thursday - mixed questions

1. Match each punctuation mark to the correct sentence.

- a. Get out of the house
- b. Where are my trainers
- c. It is half past ten in the morning

2. Highlight the adverb in this sentence.

I've never seen a racing car that can grow wings and fly away.

3. Add punctuation to the sentence below so that it is correct.

The teacher asked his pupils Is Marcus ill today
