Maths

Learning Intention: To name and talk about 3D shapes.

Explain to children that this week will be learning all about 3D shapes and their properties.

1. Go on a shape walk around the home. See how many of the following shapes you have around your home and record it on a tally chart.

Shape	Tally

Use a tally to count the shapes you see.

Which shape did you see the most?

Which shape did you see least?

2. See if you can draw some of the 3D objects you have found around your home.
3. Have a go at making a space shuttle using some 3D junk modelling from around the home.

Oak National Academy (Maths):

Oak National Academy is providing Maths lessons for Reception. While they do not follow the same themes we are focussing on in our school planning, feel free to browse their website for additional learning for your children. Each week, they have daily lessons. Have a look at some focused on adding:

How to help young children learn at home.

You can help your child to learn through the little things you do with them, for example:

- everyday conversations
- make-believe play
- games with numbers or letters
- reading together
- involving them in the things you are doing, such as household chores, and talking with them about it

Find ideas for new things you can try at Hungry Little Minds.

You do not need to set separate time or plan complicated activities dedicated to learning. These activities can be built into everyday life and play.

You know your child best. Avoid forcing them into lengthy planned activities if they naturally respond better to a mix of shorter activities. This can stop them getting bored or frustrated and keep them active, interested and learning through things they enjoy.

For more information on supporting younger children to learn at home, please take a look at the Department for Education's official guidance notes:
