RE

Sacred books- Christianity

What are our rights? What do they mean? Which ones are about how we treat others?

What is a teacher? People called Jesus a teacher too. He may not have taught Maths and English to a class of children every day, but he did teach lots of things and these are written down in Christians' holy book, the Bible. The Bible contains a story of how Jesus came to do some of his teaching. Lots of people wanted to hear him teach, so large crowds followed him. When he saw the crowds, he went onto a mountainside and sat down and he began to teach.

Some of the things that he taught were:

- Do not be angry, make up quickly and forgive each other.
- If somebody is nasty to you, don't be nasty back. Be kind instead.
- Love everybody. Even love people who do not love you.
- Treat others the way that you would like to be treated.

Think about what a Christian might do in some different situations such as:

- Your friend breaks your toy.
- Your brother steps on your new shoes.
- You are going out to playtime (hooray!) when you notice that your friend can't come with you because s/he hasn't finished tidying the book corner yet.
- Sam never helps you with your work and now he is stuck on his math.

What do Jesus' teachings mean a Christian might do in these situations?
Show your solutions through drama.
